

TAILORED BRANDS

CUSTOMS TRADE PARTNERSHIP AGAINST TERRORISM STATEMENT

June 2, 2021

Tailored Brands (brands include Men's Wearhouse, Jos. A. Bank, Moores, and K&G) has been a proud member of the U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) Customs Trade Partnership Against Terrorism (CTPAT) program since 2006.

This partnership demonstrates our commitment to maintaining and managing high security standards, procedures, and processes throughout our operations. Our commitment fully extends to all employees of Tailored Brands as well as to all of our business partners in an effort to create and support security for our borders and the international trade community.

As a member of the CTPAT program, Tailored Brands acknowledges and demonstrates the importance of protecting the supply chain from criminal activities such as drug trafficking, terrorism, human smuggling, and illegal contraband. In addition, our company implements CTPAT Minimum Security Criteria (MSC) in daily practices to enhance supply chain integrity and reduce cargo theft and pilferage.

Tailored Brands ensures business partners demonstrate a commitment to meeting the security requirements appropriate to their business, including assess control, container/trailer security (seals, inspections, and storage), personnel security, physical security, procedural security, and security and threat awareness training through the use of security questionnaires.

Francisco Fuentes
Vice President of Risk Management